Jeron Tharpe

Las Vegas, NV | joyousjay7474@gmail.com | 432-214-5617

Professional Summary

Student-focused education and social services professional with experience in school coordination, counseling support, preschool education, and special needs services. Proven ability to build strong relationships with students, families, and educators while delivering academic guidance, behavioral support, and program coordination.

Work Experience

Site Coordinator – Communities In Schools, Las Vegas, NV (Jan 2023 – Jan 2026)

- Provided individual and group counseling addressing academic, career, and social-emotional needs
- Developed and implemented student success programs including college readiness and goal planning
- Collaborated with teachers, parents, and multidisciplinary teams including IEP participation
- Delivered crisis intervention, conflict resolution, and bullying prevention initiatives
- Coordinated college fairs, scholarship workshops, and career exploration activities

Preschool Teacher – Helen Greathouse Children's Center, Midland College, TX (Mar 2017 – Apr 2022)

- Designed and delivered age-appropriate lesson plans promoting cognitive, social, and emotional growth
- Implemented classroom behavior management strategies in inclusive learning environments
- Assessed student progress and collaborated with parents on development plans
- Supported early literacy, technology integration, and hands-on learning experiences

Education

Bachelor of Science, Computer Science – University of Phoenix (Online)
Associate of Arts, Music Education – Midland College

Certifications

Child Development Associate (CDA) | CPR/AED (Adult, Child, Infant) | RBT Certification | Substitute Teaching Certification | Paraprofessional Certification | Guard Card | Non-CDL Class C with Passenger & School Bus Endorsements

Core Skills

Student Counseling • Special Education Support • Classroom Management • Program Coordination • Case Management • Career Guidance • Community Engagement • Documentation & Reporting • Microsoft Office & Google Workspace • Communication & Public Speaking