KHADIJA FALL

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Computer Science student at Capital University with experience in campus facilities management and a strong foundation in programming, algorithms, and technology. Proficient in Python, C++, and Microsoft Office, with strong analytical, problem-solving, communication, and teamwork skills. Four-language speaker fluent in English, French, Arabic, and Wolof. Provost's List student-athlete and member of the Capital University women's lacrosse team seeking an IT opportunity with DLZ in Columbus.

EDUCATION

Capital University — Columbus, Ohio
Bachelor of Science in Computer Science | Expected Graduation: TBD
Provost's List
Student-Athlete, Women's Lacrosse

TECHNICAL SKILLS

Programming: Python, C++
Computer Science: Algorithms, Problem Solving, Object-Oriented Programming
Microsoft Office: Word, Excel, PowerPoint, Outlook
Professional Skills: Technical Problem Solving, Communication, Teamwork, Organization, Time Management, quick learner

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Capital University — Facilities Management | Columbus, Ohio
Facilities Management Assistant | [Month Year] – Present

- Support daily facilities operations and contribute to maintaining a safe, organized, and efficient campus environment.
- Collaborate with university staff and team members to complete operational tasks and respond to changing priorities.
- Apply strong organizational and problem-solving skills to address day-to-day operational needs.
- Communicate effectively with staff and members of the university community while maintaining professionalism and attention to detail.

- Manage responsibilities independently while meeting expectations in a fast-paced campus environment.

LEADERSHIP & ACTIVITIES

Capital University Women's Lacrosse | Columbus, Ohio
Student-Athlete | [2025] – Present

- Balance collegiate athletics with a rigorous Computer Science curriculum, and a part time job in facilities demonstrating strong time-management and organizational skills.
- Work collaboratively with teammates toward shared goals in a competitive team environment.
- Demonstrate discipline, accountability, adaptability, and perseverance through collegiate athletics.

Capital University Women's Basketball | Columbus, Ohio
Team Assistant | [Year] – [Year/Present]

- Assist the Capital University women's basketball team with game-day and team operations.
- Operate TimeShot to manage and track game timing during basketball games.
- Support coaches and team staff with organizational and administrative responsibilities.
- Demonstrate attention to detail, reliability, communication, and the ability to work effectively in a fast-paced athletic environment.

PROGRAMMING & COMPUTER SCIENCE

Algorithmic Programming

- Develop programming solutions using C++ and algorithmic problem-solving techniques.
- Apply computational thinking, logical reasoning, debugging, and data-structure concepts to programming challenges.

Python Programming

- Develop Python programs to solve computational and practical problems.
- Apply programming fundamentals, debugging techniques, and structured problem-solving to coursework and projects.

LANGUAGES

English: Fluent
French: Fluent

Arabic: Fluent
Wolof: Fluent

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Provost's List Recipient
Capital University Student-Athlete
Based in Columbus, Ohio